On the first night of the arrival of lumber camp novices, an Indian from the camp would go out in a nearby swamp and make the most blood-curdling and terrifying noises. The tenderfeet were told that this was the "Hodag" wandering in his native wilds. Many a tale was spun by the loggers about this mythical animal and a great number were taken in by the hoax. This post card is the logger's conception of the fearful animal.

NORTH WISCONSIN POST CARD CO., RHINELANDER, WIS.

GENUINE CURTEICH-CHICAGO "C.T. ART-COLORTONE" POST CARD (REG. U.S. PAT. OFF.)

PLACE
STAMP
HERE

POST CARD

V28-I14

The Hodag from Rhinelander, Wisconsin

1B-H1696